OIL-INVESTORS HERE CHEERED BY LANE'S PROMISE OF QUICK RELIEF

California Situation Is to Be Straightened Out in a Favorable Way

Scores of heavy investors of this territory in California oil lands are given reassurance by Secretary of the Interior Lane that speedy relief of the oil land situation is coming.

On October 27, according to news received here by interested parties, Secretary Lane met with large oil interest representatives in the Palace hotel of San Francisco. He called the conference in the hope of getting views from them as to what premium should be charged for oil taken from land on which patents might be declared invalid, as coming within the naval petroleum reserves.

After some discussion the secretary held out hope of immediate relief for the producers.

The amended act to protect the locators in good faith of oil and gas lands who have effected actual discoveries provides:

"That where applications for patents have been or may be offered for any oil or gas land included in an order of withdrawal upon which oil or gas has heretofore been discovered, or is being produced, or upon which drilling operations were in actual progress on October 3, 1910, and oil or gas is thereafter discovered thereon, and where there has been no final determination by the secretary of the interior upon such applications for patent, the secretary, in his discretion, may enter into agreements, under such conditions as he may prescribe with such applicants for patents in possession of such land or any portion thereof, relative to the disposition of the oil or gas produced or the proceeds, pending final determination of the title.

"Any money which may accrue to the United States under the provisions of this act from lands within the naval petroleum reserves shall be set aside for the needs of the navy."

The San Francisco Chronicle of October 28 says of the situation: "For several months past the big refining companies such as the Standard, Union, Independent and others, have refused to purchase oil from producers whose title or patents to land from which the oil was taken were not clear, for fear that the United States would bring suit against them and win heavy fines. "Millions of gallons of oil are in storage now, and millions of barrels more have been lost through seepage by the independent producers on lands the titles of which were not clear. There are many small oil companies, and large ones, too, that have been either entirely shut down or partly so since the big refining companies declined to purchase.

"What the government proposes to do now is to levy a tax of a certain percentage of the money derived from the sale of oil produced from the lands the titles of which are in dispute. Secretary Lane has not as yet decided what this tax shall be. At yesterday's conference some of the oil men suggested that the tax be graduated according to the profits of the output. If one producer made more than another his percentage should be larger than his less fortunate fellow, was another suggestion. Taxes of from one-fourth of the value of the output down to one-eighth were suggested.

Government Will Not Sue. "Secretary Lane said that he would take the matter under consideration immediately upon his return to Washington, and that the oil men could look for a settlement very soon. He said that he would use every possible effort to reach a speedy conclusion, and that the administration would do everything in its power to relieve the entire oil situation.

"The secretary said that the government did not intend to impose any fine on or bring any suit against any oil company that purchases from a producer whose land title was not clear. According to Lane, the refining companies will be permitted to buy oil without fear of being sued or fined, even if the land from which the oil was produced is declared in court to be government land.

"In case the land from which oil is produced is declared not to be naval reserve land, all money deposited with the government from the sale of this oil will be refunded. In other words, oil producers on all lands will be allowed to sell. If they do not receive titles they will have to pay a tax to the government, and the refining companies will not be molested for purchasing this oil.

"Local oil men predict that the market will immediately brighten and quicken and that production will increase greatly."

Little Girl Shot on National Guard Rifle Range Sunday

The accidental discharge of one shot from a Colt machine gun on the National Guard rifle range at Kakaako Sunday afternoon wounded Lizzie Keoho, an 11-year-old Hawaiian girl, who was standing near the firing point a short distance to one side. The bullet passed through the child's left arm, shattering the bone and slightly grazing the left side. The wound is not serious, and she will recover.

A detachment of national guardsmen, under command of Lieut. P. L. Smoot, was being instructed in the use of the piece on the 500-yard range. Some change was necessary in the target and the gun was swung to one side. While in this position one of the men seated himself on the saddle on the trail of the gun and placed his hand on the pistol grip. He displaced the safety and the shot in the chamber was discharged.

Lieut. Smoot at once applied first aid and then took the wounded child in his automobile to the United States army dispensary in the immigration station, where the arm was dressed. He then took her to Queen's hospital, where she was taken charge of.

Lizzie Keoho is the adopted daughter of Remes Kikupu, a sergeant of the quartermaster corps of the National Guard of Hawaii. She lives at the range with her parents.

In the detachment which Lieut. Smoot was instructing were Lieut. L. K. Cushingham, Q. M. Sgt. Newell, Cpl. Kealawale and Pts. Bruns, Rogers, Mackenzie and Wilcox.

License Inspector Fennell has caused the arrest of Ah Sam, proprietor of a hotel street restaurant, it being charged that intoxicating liquors had been dispensed on the premises after the closing of downtown saloons. The Chinese proposes to fight the case in the courts. The proprietor was placed under arrest at a late hour Saturday night.

MEXICAN SITUATION AGAIN ACUTE; U. S. MARINES LAND AT ACAPULCO

Carranza Defies Peace Convention; Gutierrez Has Named Cabinet

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—The situation south of the Rio Grande is assuming a seriousness that is worrying the government officials here considerably, the old cloud of intervention looming blacker and blacker.

Yesterday, according to information reaching here through constitutional channels, American marines were landed at the port of Acapulco, on the Pacific coast, and the place occupied. The reports of this activity on the part of the Americans say that the marines were landed on the urging of the residents, who were suffering privations.

From Vera Cruz come reports of rioting and looting in the City of Mexico, where it is reported that the National bank was sacked by a mob, led by constitutionalist soldiers. Other disorders are reported.

Carranza has issued an ultimatum, dated from Cordoba, defying the Aguas Calientes convention and its nominee for the provisional presidency, while the latter has issued a manifesto stating that he proposes to exercise the supreme power in the republic from this morning.

Carranza's ultimatum is directed to the officers of the army and the chiefs of the railroad and other civil bureaus. In it he states that he is and proposes to continue to act as the "chief head of the republic." He warns all officers and employees of the government to disregard all of the mandates of the 1839.

Aguas Calientes convention, under threat of being treated otherwise as traitors. Carranza will remain in Cordoba and direct his campaign from that place.

In response, Eulalio Gutierrez, the selection of the delegates at the national convention as provisional president, yesterday issued a manifesto from Aguas Calientes, in which he announces that he proposes to assume office today as chief executive of Mexico. He also announces the names of those selected as cabinet officers. These are:

Gen. Calderon, foreign minister; Antonio I. Villarreal, who was president of the convention, minister of communication; Juvenilo Robles, minister of war, and Jose Blanco, minister of the interior.

Enrique Llorente will be appointed the Washington representative of the new administration.

The final accounts of B. L. Marx, administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Agnes E. Hawes, were approved by Circuit Judge Whitney yesterday, administrator being discharged from further responsibility and his bond cancelled.

The official figures on the vote for W. H. Crawford at Watertown at the recent election were received by the territorial secretary from Chairman Canth yesterday. Thus the necessity for opening the ballot box from the seventeenth precinct of the fifth representative district is obviated. Crawford received 32 votes, making his total vote received in the district 1839.
